PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Industrial & Systems Engineer and Growth Manager specialized in process optimization, opportunity identification, and the design of commercial and financial strategies. Proven in revenue growth initiatives — pricing, discounts, promotions and lifecycle campaigns — alongside budget management, segmentation analysis and data-driven experimentation, with advanced use of AI for analysis and integrations. Work effectively in multi-skilled teams, prioritizing execution, clear communication, empathy, and respect, and committed to continuously sharpening both technical and people skills to deliver higher-impact results.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Growth Manager

FX Replay · Remote / North America (06/2026 – Present)

- Own company-wide growth strategy, leading cross-functional initiatives across marketing, product, and finance to drive sustainable, KPI-aligned growth.
- Led the Black Friday and end-of-year strategies, generating over $1MM in incremental revenue.
- Ran a company-wide segmentation analysis that optimized multiple areas and gave the business clarity on where growth comes from.
- Scale the experimentation and revenue practices built as Revenue Specialist into a broader growth function covering acquisition, activation, and retention.

Revenue Specialist — promoted to Growth Manager

FX Replay · Remote (08/2024 – 06/2026)

- Owned key revenue metrics (MRR, churn, retention) and drove actions that protected and grew recurring revenue across the subscriber lifecycle.
- Built a fast experimentation practice: ran A/B tests on pricing and promotional messaging across multiple geographies before full rollout, replacing broad assumptions with real signals from the trader community.
- Discovered that newer traders respond to relative savings while experienced paying traders prefer absolute price clarity, and used that insight to tailor offers by segment.
- Identified a critical drop-off between offer acceptance and completed checkout, surfacing conversion-flow friction and prioritizing fixes to recover lost upgrades.
- Owned the Chargebee retention flow, reducing voluntary and involuntary churn by intercepting users before cancellation with targeted offers and trial extensions.
- Helped shift the company toward a KPI-driven culture, aligning marketing, product, and finance around shared growth metrics.

Revenue Management Manager

PIL Andina S.A. · Santa Cruz de la Sierra, Bolivia (02/2024 – 08/2024)
